President Message

Beth
Naylor,
President

Inspiration comes from various places and times. Those of us who have been to the State Convention at Sewanee can attest to how inspirational it can be. "I've never been in the company of so many females with their PhD," said Anne Phillips. For me it was the Ceremony of Remembrance in the chapel that was so very special. Perhaps the best thing for you in DKG is to spend a couple of days (June 2-4) at Sewanee to renew, reflect, and rebuild the commitment that is needed in DKG. Register today by going online to www.tndkg.org and click on Calendar to find the TNSO Convention. Beth

There are 15 membership videos on our TNDKG website. Learn more about the Society and help Theta received points on the Maycie Award. Watch and complete the Activity Sheet for each one. Email them to DKG.member.edu@gmail.com.
